

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be current college students or recent graduates of an Arkansas college or university, or Arkansas high school graduates currently attending or recently graduated from an out-of-state college. Candidates should have a strong interest in attending law school and intend to take the LSAT this year.

Items Required for Application Consideration:

1. Completed application.
2. Write a letter to the selection committee, maximum 500 words, detailing the applicant's motivation for pursuing a career in the legal field. Additionally, choose one of the following essay questions to address:
 - a. What challenges or obstacles have you overcome and what have you learned from those experiences.
 - b. Describe a challenge or barrier you've faced in your pursuit of legal education and how you navigated it. What did you learn from the experience?
 - c. Tell us about a time you successfully achieved a goal, outline the specific steps you took to reach it.
 - d. Describe a facet of your identity, background or personal story that shapes who you are.
3. Transcript (formal or informal transcripts accepted)
4. One letter of recommendation (from an undergraduate faculty member or advisor)

Application Submission Instructions

All required components of this application must be completed and sent in one email electronically or mailed as one packet and received no later than Saturday, April 4, 2026. Letter of recommendations may be included with the applicant's submission or provided separately by the recommender but must also be received to the address by due date.

In addition to a bar examination, there are character, fitness and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to research such requirements through the National Conference of Bar Examiners. As you respond to the questions below, do so carefully and be mindful that in the future, when you seek admission to law schools and state bar(s), you will be required to respond to similar conduct questions. Failure to provide complete, accurate and consistent responses, or to omit information that is requested on law school applications can cause serious problems for you when you are seeking bar admission but checking "yes or no" to any of these items will not necessarily exclude an applicant from participation in this program. If the answer to any of the following questions is yes, please attach a statement concerning each item, including the charge and final resolution.

1. Are you currently, or have you ever been, on academic suspension or academic probation? Yes No
2. Have disciplinary charges ever been filed against you at any institution of learning or have you ever been dismissed from any institution of learning? Yes No
