WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Students or graduates of an Arkansas 4-year college who are part of a diverse minority that is currently underrepresented in the Arkansas legal profession.

ABOUT

FRIDAY FORWARD

The program was created by Friday, Eldredge & Clark, LLP with the goal to increase the number of law school students from diverse backgrounds. Recognizing that diversity includes many human differences such as race, ethnicity, sexual and gender identity, military service, socioeconomic status, faith and beliefs, disability status, immigrant upbringing, and other conditions, we are committed to seeking out these populations to provide up to 10 applicants financial support and mentorship with the goal of inspiring a more diverse representation in the Arkansas legal profession.

TESTIMONIAL

"The program mentorship and access to resources helped me make my dream of going to law school a reality!"
