

TRUST & ESTATE PLANNING

At Friday, Eldredge & Clark, wealth management is the core of our Trust and Estate Planning Practice Group. Our attorneys have experience with complex estate plans, trust and estate administration and controversies, estate matters, preparation of gift and estate tax returns, review of fiduciary income tax returns and nonprofit trusts. The practice group focuses mostly on individuals and private clients, some of whom own businesses in many industry sectors.

Business owners, farmers, lawyers, physicians, entrepreneurs, retirees, investors, executives, and other professionals and their families all trust Friday, Eldredge & Clark for counsel on these matters. We not only help individuals but also family-owned businesses and all types of tax-exempt organizations. We also advise fiduciaries on the administration of estates and trusts.

We counsel individual and corporate fiduciaries, executors, administrators, guardians, trustees and beneficiaries on the estate administration and settlement process, guiding them through the legal requirements imposed by the governing documents and state law. In addition, we advise our clients on the tax compliance obligations for fiduciary income taxes, estate and gift taxes and generation-skipping transfer taxes.
