

PRACTICE AREA

Commercial Litigation & Regulatory

Experienced litigation counsel focused on resolving complex commercial and regulatory disputes.

Friday, Eldredge & Clark represents businesses in complex commercial disputes and regulatory matters, offering strategic counsel designed to protect financial interests and support long-term business goals. Our attorneys handle commercial litigation at every stage—from pre-dispute evaluation and negotiations to trial, arbitration, regulatory hearings, and appeal. With extensive experience across industries and in matters involving lender liability, bankruptcy, deceptive trade practices, class actions, securities, real estate, and commercial lending disputes, we deliver efficient, results-driven representation. Our team is recognized for its depth of experience and ability to staff cases with the right lawyers to achieve outcomes that align with each client’s business objectives and bottom-line priorities.

Areas of Focus

Pre-Litigation Strategy & Risk Assessment

Early case evaluation, exposure analysis, and business-focused strategies to control costs, preserve leverage, and position matters for efficient resolution.

Comprehensive Case Management

End-to-end representation—from pleadings and targeted discovery to motion practice, trial, arbitration, regulatory hearings, and appeal—staffed with the right experience at every stage.

Lender Liability & Financial Disputes

Deep experience defending banks and financial institutions in lender liability claims, commercial lending disputes, foreclosures, troubled-debt restructuring, and related bankruptcy adversary proceedings.

Deceptive Trade Practices, Class Actions & Securities

Defense of ADTPA and consumer claims, complex class actions, and securities matters, using strategic motions, class-definition challenges, and appellate pathways to minimize exposure.
