Friday, Eldredge & Clark, LLP is proud to recognize Sarah Giammo, a partner in the firm's Public Finance Practice Group, for her recent graduation from Leadership Greater Little Rock (LGLR) Class XL, a flagship program of the Little Rock Regional Chamber.

Leadership Greater Little Rock is a nine-month civic leadership development program designed to cultivate informed and engaged leaders from across Central Arkansas. Participants in Class XL represented a range of industries including business, healthcare, law, education, and public service.

Sarah joins a distinguished network of alumni who have helped shape the region through service, innovation, and leadership. Her selection for the program reflects her professional achievements, civic engagement, and commitment to strengthening the Little Rock community.

Sarah focuses her legal practice on structuring public financings across Arkansas, including tax-exempt and taxable bond transactions for municipalities, higher education institutions, and public facilities boards. She is recognized by Best Lawyers in America as "One to Watch" in public finance law and was named a 2023 Mid-South Super Lawyers Rising Star.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Sarah remains active in the legal and academic community through her service on alumni boards for the UA Little Rock Bowen School of Law and the Donaghey Scholars Program.
