Johanna Wade Appointed to World Services for the Blind Foundation Board of Directors

AUGUST 6, 2026

SUMMARY

Johanna Wade has been appointed to the Board of Directors for the World Services for the Blind Foundation. The World Services for the Blind Foundation supports the mission of World Services for the Blind by advancing resources that help individuals who are blind or visually impaired achieve independence through comprehensive life skills, career training, and employment services.

Friday, Eldredge & Clark is pleased to announce that Johanna Wade has been appointed to the Board of Directors for the World Services for the Blind Foundation.

Johanna is a member of the firm's Litigation Practice Group and serves clients in a broad range of litigation matters.

The World Services for the Blind Foundation supports the mission of World Services for the Blind by advancing resources that help individuals who are blind or visually impaired achieve independence through comprehensive life skills, career training, and employment services.

Founded in 1947 and headquartered in Little Rock, World Services for the Blind provides training and support to individuals from across the United States and around the world, empowering them to live independently and pursue meaningful careers.

Learn more about Johanna Wade by visiting her attorney profile: https://fridayfirm.com/attorneys/jwade/

FRIDAY FIRM NEWSLETTER

Get timely legal insights, firm updates, and event invitations straight to your inbox.