

Firm honored with prestigious Legislative Advocacy Award

DECEMBER 21, 2022

Firm and practice group honored with prestigious Legislative Advocacy Award from the Central Arkansas Human Resource Association. On December 8th, 2022, Wayne Young was honored to receive the prestigious Legislative Advocacy Award from the Central Arkansas Human Resource Association on behalf of the firm and the Labor & Employment practice group.

The entire firm was commended for its hard work and dedication, with an emphasis on the firm's labor and employment group. The Legislative Advocacy Award is a testament to the commitment to human resources management and the group's dedication to advocating for the Human Resources profession. This award recognizes the firm's exemplary service to the Association and its valuable contributions in local, state, and federal legislative advocacy. It is a great accomplishment and one that will be celebrated for years to come.

— SUMMARY

Firm and practice group honored with prestigious Legislative Advocacy Award from the Central Arkansas Human Resource Association. On December 8th, 2022, Wayne Young was honored to receive the prestigious Legislative Advocacy Award from the Central Arkansas Human Resource Association on behalf of the firm and the Labor & Employment practice group. The entire firm was commended ... Continued

— FRIDAY FIRM NEWSLETTER

Get timely legal insights, firm updates, and event invitations straight to your inbox.